

LONG DISTANCE SERVICE

Customer placement of an interstate or international toll call over Solutions' network constitutes your acceptance of these terms and conditions.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I. Services Provided

- a. The Company provides access to facilities, services and equipment over which our Customers may transmit voice, data and other communications of their own choosing to intrastate, and interstate destinations.
- b. The Company provides service on a 7 days per week, 24 hours per day basis to all destinations in the United States (including Alaska and Hawaii).
- c. The Company has customer service representatives available from 8:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. Monday through Friday (excluding holidays) to assist its Customers with any questions or problems regarding its toll services. A Company representative can be reached during these hours by dialing (320) 312-3682 or (800) 692-0021.

II. Charges, Bills and Payment for Service

- a. Service is provided and billed on a monthly basis, and will continue to be provided and billed until canceled by the Customer or terminated by the Company.
- b. The Company bills for its toll services on a usage basis. There is a 30-second minimum billing period and billing continues in six second increments thereafter.
- c. The Company will pass through to its Customers all applicable federal, state and local taxes or surcharges.
- d. Payment for all bills rendered by the Company for its toll services are due on the 15th of the month.
- e. No late charge will be assessed upon properly disputed charges (see dispute procedures below).
- f. The Company may require a Customer to make an advance payment prior to or at any time after provision of service.
- g. The Company reserves the right to establish a credit limit for the Customer, and to suspend service to the Customer when the Customer reaches the applicable limit.

III. Obligations of Customer

- a. The Customer is responsible for the timely payment of all billed charges for services or facilities provided by the Company, and for the payment of reasonable attorney's fees and court costs if the Company is required to retain an attorney to collect any of its billed charges from the Customer.
- b. The Customer will not use the Company's services in a manner that interferes unreasonably with the use of the services by one or more other Customers.
- c. The Customer will not use the Company's services in an abusive, illegal or fraudulent manner, nor alter or tamper with the Company's connections or facilities.
- d. The Customer will indemnify the Company against any and all liability, including reasonable counsel fees, arising from any claims against the Customer for libel, slander, or infringement of copyright or trademark in connection with any material transmitted by the Customer over the Company's facilities, services or equipment.

IV. Resolution of Billing Disputes

- a. If the procedures of this section are followed, the Customer may withhold payment relating to disputed items pending resolution of the dispute.
- b. Within 15 days of the bill date of a disputed bill, the Company must receive from the Customer an itemized statement in writing which identifies the disputed charges and reasonably explains the basis of the dispute. Failure to comply with this requirement shall mean the bill is deemed correct and all amounts are due to the Company.
- c. The Company shall review the Customer's statement of disputed charges, and shall issue a written initial determination within 15 days after receipt to set forth the Company's proposed resolution of the dispute charges.
- d. If the Customer is not satisfied with the Company's proposed resolution, the Customer must advise the Company in writing within 15 days after receipt of the Company's initial determination, of the specific reasons for the dissatisfaction and provide any additional information the Customer deems pertinent or relevant to the dispute.
- e. Within 15 days after the Company's receipt of additional information, the Company shall make its final determination and resolution of the disputed charges based upon all documentation or information available to the Company.
- f. If the Customer continues to withhold payment of any disputed amounts, determined to be owed to the Company, the Customer's account shall be deemed to be past due, and subject to termination.

V. Limitation of the Company's Liability

- a. The Customer assumes all risks, other than those resulting from gross negligence or willful misconduct associated with the provision of all telecommunications services and delivery of messages. The liability of the Company for damages resulting in whole or in part from mistakes, omissions, interruptions, delays, errors or other defects in the intrastate and interstate toll services provided shall not exceed its billed charges for the defective call or calls.
- b. Neither the Company, nor its officers, agents or employees will be liable for indirect, incidental, special, punitive or consequential damages, including but not limited to damages for loss of anticipated profits or revenue, lost saving, or other economic loss in connection with or arising from any telecommunications service or message, whether arising in contract, warranty, strict liability, tort negligence of any kind (other than willful negligence or intentional misconduct) and regardless of whether the possibility of such damage resulting was foreseen.
- c. The Company shall not be liable for any interruption, failure or degradation of service due in whole or part to causes beyond its control including but not limited to: (1) acts of God, fires, flood or other catastrophes; (2) any law, order, regulation, directive, action or request of any instrumentality of the United States Government, or of any foreign, state or local government; (3) any national emergency, insurrection, riot, war, strike or labor difficulty; (d) any act or omission by any other carrier, including the carrier providing the resold services to the Company, or other entity affecting the facilities or equipment over which the Company services are provided; (5) any negligence by the Customer or defects or failures of the Customer's equipment; and (6) any negligent acts or omissions of third parties.
- d. Customer shall hold the Company harmless from any third-party claims arising out of Customer's use of the Company's service.

VI. Refusal, Termination or Suspension of Service

- a. The Company may refuse service to a Customer that fails or declines to make an advance payment requested by the Company.
- b. The Company may discontinue service without notice if it finds that Customer has furnished false or misleading information in an effort to obtain or retain service.
- c. The Company may terminate service 7 days after a written notice of termination is mailed to the last known billing address of a Customer that has failed to pay a bill for more than 15 days after it was rendered, or that has failed to pay disputed charges determined to be owed to the Company via the Company's billing dispute resolution procedures (see above) for more than 10 days after the end of the dispute resolution proceeding.
